If there was any hope on the part of William Ellis Corey and Mabelle Gilman that they might be married at the Episcopal Cathedral at Garden City, L. I., it was effectually dissipated to-day by the secretary to Bishop Durgess, of the Long Island Diocese. In a statement, which undoubtedly has the Bishop's sanction he said:

"The wedding of such a couple could never occur in the Cathedral at Garden City, and no Episcopal clergyman in the diocese would perform such a ceremony where either of the parties had been divorced. I doubt very much whether any selfrespecting minister could be found on Long Island to marry such a couple."
